

Jonathan Dwyer

Q) What did you study at TSS?

A Level PE, Geography and Economics plus Double BTEC Sport.

Q) What are you doing now?

I'm in my final year at Sheffield Hallam University studying Physical Education and Youth Sport and then training to become a PE teacher.

Q) Which teachers inspired you?

My PE teachers were my favourite because you could enjoy a laugh with them and still learn so much in their lessons.

Q) What advice would you pass on to current students?

Make the most of your time at school; work hard and have the time of your life.
